

BANDAI NAMCO ENTERTAINMENT INC. TO OPEN JAPAN'S LARGEST VR ENTERTAINMENT FACILITY "VR ZONE SHINJUKU" IN TOKYO ON JULY 14, 2017

BANDAI NAMCO Entertainment Inc. (HQ: Minato-ku, Tokyo, President & CEO: Satoshi Oshita) will open the largest VR entertainment facility in Japan, "VR ZONE SHINJUKU", in Shinjuku Tokyo on Friday, July 14. Reservations will be available from Friday, June 16, PM12:00 (JST). Building upon the success of its predecessor "VR ZONE Project i Can", VR ZONE SHINJUKU will house over 15 activities including the following new VR activities utilizing IPs:

- Dragon Ball VR "Master the Kamehameha"
- Evangelion VR "The Throne of Souls"
- Ghost in the Shell Arise: Stealth Hounds
- MARIO KART ARCADE GP VR

※Overseas installation of the VR activities above are currently undetermined.

VR ZONE SHINJUKU will also include a wide range of new non-IP VR activities where guests will be able to experience exploring a fantasy world on a winged bicycle, a horror-filled dinosaur survival run, and much more. Every activity is designed for the guests to lose themselves in the immersive VR experience. Guests will also be able to enjoy a variety of non VR activities, such as surviving from an expanding giant balloon in a locked cell, purchasing original souvenirs, and enjoy meals and activities in a virtually simulated resort themed dining space, making for a truly well-rounded entertainment experience.

In addition, BANDAI NAMCO Entertainment Inc. has teamed up with the popular digital art group NAKED to develop projection mapping installations in and out of the facility. The exterior will feature a projection of PAC-MAN among other images, while the inside will feature a 'Centre Tree' posing as the interface of the facility which will allow guests to interact with the building itself through touch.
